

Bermagui Vietnam Veterans Remember

Bermagui RSL Sub-Branch held a memorial service to commemorate Vietnam Veterans Day and the 44th anniversary of the Battle of Long Tan.

The guest speaker, Mr Geoff Cameron gave a detailed account of the Battle of Coral / Balmoral. Another significant battle during the Vietnam war.

Vietnam Veterans Day is commemorated on 18 August every year. The day was originally known as Long Tan Day, chosen to commemorate the men of D Company, 6RAR who fought in the battle of Long Tan in 1966. On that day, 108 Australian and New Zealand soldiers fought a pitched battle against over 2,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops in a rubber plantation not far from the small village of Long Tan. The Australians prevailed, but only after fighting in torrential rain for four hours. They were nearly overrun, but were saved by a timely ammunition resupply, accurate artillery fire from the nearby Australian base, and the arrival of reinforcements by armoured personnel carrier. Eighteen Australians lost their lives and 24 were wounded, the largest number of casualties in one operation since the Australian task force had arrived a few months earlier. After the battle the bodies of 245 enemy soldiers were found, but there was evidence that many more bodies had been carried away.

On the third anniversary of Long Tan, 18 August 1969, a cross was raised on the site of the battle by the men of 6RAR. Veterans from the battle gathered at the cross to commemorate the fallen, and the day was commemorated by them as Long Tan Day from then on. Over time, all Vietnam veterans adopted the day as one to commemorate those who served and died in Vietnam. In 1987, following the very successful Welcome Home parade for Vietnam veterans in Sydney, Prime Minister Bob Hawke announced that Long Tan Day would be known as Vietnam Veterans Day. Since then, it has been commemorated every year as the day on which the service of all those men and women who served in Vietnam is remembered.

Unintended Gardens, Bermagui

Stuart Cameron
Project Officer, Coastal Weeds Project

To bring home to Shire gardeners the impact of invasive plants locally, signs are being installed at 5 sites near reserves in BVS coastal towns where garden escapes can be readily seen invading and overwhelming the native coastal vegetation. Installation of this signage is part of the Coastal Weeds Project, hosted by BVSC and Federally funded by the Caring for Our Country program. Some funds from Council's Environmental Levy are also being used.

The signs were developed by local botanist Stuart Cameron, the project officer, and by interpretation designer Lois Haywood. Each features photographs of eight garden escapees to be seen at the site and an indication on a world map of where they originate.

For advice on selection of non-invasive garden plants obtain the free brochure 'Grow Me Instead' from BVS Council offices and local nurseries.

U3A is it 4U2?

The University of the Third Age has been in Bermagui for less than twelve months but in that time they have built a membership of more than one hundred. Seventeen of these members have used their particular talents to lead courses in subjects as diverse as Theatre and Acting, Applied Geology and French Conversation.

Kerry Davies was instrumental in establishing the Bermagui branch and she is now the Course Coordinator, contact her if you would like to join or to lead a course. Kerry also produces the Newsletter and she is looking for some volunteer help with it. Her contact details are phone 6493 4323 and email to kerry.davies@gmail.com or u3abermi@gmail.com

President Rona Walker said that registration for fourth term courses will be available on Wednesday 22nd September between 10am and 4pm at the Bermagui Community Centre and a full list of the courses on offer will be available there.

Rona also said that the number of courses may be slightly reduced in the fourth term as several tutors are currently overseas or travelling. Indeed one of them, geologist Ray McLeod, is reportedly walking across the North of England as a follow up to his walk from Vienna to Rome.

Annual membership of U3A is $20.00 and this allows the member to take part in as many courses as they wish without any further cost other than a small contribution to cover expenses such as the cost of hiring meeting rooms.

The AGM will be held on Friday 5th of November at the Bermagui Country Club.

From the Murrah

This year like previous ones have had a committed Committee keeping the spirit of the Murrah alive by creating and maintaining interest, entertainment and a venue for your pleasure. As I mentioned at our "Cheer for the Years of Volunteers and Solar Panel Launch" earlier this year, our long time Treasurer of ten years, Mary McLean, would like to step down. And with your help, she will. Mary has been an exemplary treasurer and deserves a well earned rest.

Bega Valley Shire Council's recent restructuring of the relationship between Council and its Halls' volunteer committees has meant that the position of Treasurer has been simplified. The new protocols will come into being after our AGM.

BVSC's representative, Julie, will be there on the day to brief our Committee on these changes. And Mary has offered to assist and be a resource for, the new Treasurer, until they feel comfortable with the position.

So, if you'd like to make a difference as Treasurer or Committee Member with a team that does - simply do what we've done - volunteer.

Murrah Night Saturday September 11th

Our Hall was created as an alternative entertainment oasis by our (then) community for their community. It is an ideal that continues to shine as any who have attended a Members Night will attest (enthusiastically).

This year promises to be no different. More awe, laughter, music and more theatre. Bring your friends and the newly arrived - Let's Party!

A poster and details of 'who' is currently being prepared.

Tranquility Day at the Murrah Hall

Sunday July 25th was an auspicious day not only in the Hindu Calendar, but also at the Murrah Hall where more than twenty five people braved the gorgeous sunlight, resounding calm and the occasional motorcycle backfire to participate in an uplifting day of meditation, yoga, a delicious community lunch and a Yatra walk through the bush.

The Murrah Committee extends thanks and gratitude to the participants and practitioners, Mary McLean (yoga), Jane and Pete (Yatra walk), Premda (meditation) and Jan Reynolds (visualisation) who donated their skills to the day and especially to Rosemary Beaumont who's introductory speech framed what was for everyone, an opportunity to contact the inter-relationship between our selves and our world as energetic beings, especially within the ongoing context of logging, deforestation and all who are involved on both sides of this drama.

The Women's Resource Centre presents:

This is an opportunity for women and children to join Permaculture consultant Kathleen McCann and begin a lifestyle of self sufficiency making their own home gardens sustainable. Letters to the Editor

Well done, local health services

At 1am on Saturday 17 July I awoke with severe chest pain and asked my husband to call an ambulance. From that moment we were both treated with the great consideration and given constant information and reassurance. I was very impressed by the staff who treated me, ambulance paramedics, nurses and doctors, and the lovely lady who heard me say that I would miss lunch because of a scan and volunteered to change my order to sandwiches and put them in the fridge for me! I have noticed newspaper comments about the quality of meals and service in NSW and ACT hospitals but those served to me were well-cooked, healthy and appropriately packaged.

I never received less than courteous attention, even when it was clear that the nurses were desperately busy. I was released with a full prescription for the antibiotics etc I needed for my further recovery at home.

We do need a new hospital, but the staff make this old one function admirably. My grateful thanks to you all!!

Congrats to Triangle!

Congratulations on the new version of The Triangle...it is fabulous.

We are soon to move from Canberra to Wallaga Lake and find the insights and information into the local community invaluable. We hope at some stage we will be able to contribute to your fine publication.

Cheers, Mark and Jenny.

Solar Power

As a recent installer of both a solar hot water system and solar panels for Renewable Electricity to feed back into the grid I would be interested to hear from other local users of these systems as to their results, their satisfaction and saving or otherwise on their power bills.

We think that it is interesting that in a very cold winter, we have hardly had to use the electric booster for our Hot Water System. This good result has been assisted by the demolition of a large gum which shaded some of the panels, but the panels also lose the sun in mid winter by 2.30 to 3pm.

Unfortunately the Panels which should have been connected to the grid are still awaiting the final electrical connection but am sure that organizations such as CEFÉ and Pyramid Power would be interested in our feed back from this area which was so enthusiastic in embracing the technology.

With regards,

Tony & Rosemary Millard

WARNING - DON'T WASTE YOUR MONEY!

There is an advertising blitz on Australian TV to use 1234 for directory assistance. It's a very expensive tool to use. Please read and try it this way. It's a free service.

For anyone contemplating using the Sensis directory service number, 1234, DON'T! Sensis, as you may or may not know, is a subsidiary of Telstra.

The 1234 number is replacing the Telstra 12456 directory assistance number, but this time with outrageous costs attached: 40c to call the number, then 4c A SECOND!

By law, Telstra has to provide a FREE directory assistance number, however, they choose not to pass this number on to the public..

Thumbs down to Telstra for finding a way to 'charge', for service that is supposed to be provided for free.

Be sure to tell all your family members and of course, feel free to forward this on if you wish ...

What's the free number? 1223 USE IT!

Desperately Seeking

..... You?

The Triangle is looking for someone who is interested in doing some computer training for the production of our local newspaper.

We are a community-based, voluntary committee who has been working together for 9 years, to produce a voice for our community.

We need someone who is fairly computer literate (but not advanced) and preferably has some interest and/or knowledge in desktop publishing.

Full training will be provided. For further information, or expressions of interest please email

Thumbs Up

To all in the cobargo fire brigade, you guys and girls do a great job and we just wanted to let you know that we appreciate your hard work and dedication. Thank you.

To the principal of Cobargo Public School for spending her weekend constructing a chook house and worm farm. Definately over and above the call of duty.

To Dave Boyle at Sapphire Nu Pulse for donating the star pickets and opening on a Sunday for her.

Thumbs Down

To those responsible for the graffiti that has defaced our roads over the last couple of months. You are mistaken if you think this is getting your message across in a positive manner as foremost it is seen for what it is - vandalism.

WALKING THE WORLD FOR PEACE

Spring has sprung and our corner of the globe has had a busy winter. Out walking with a friend recently, I met Jean Beliveau walking around the world for children, and he was going to be walking right past my place. Without too much persuasion he came in for a cuppa and I was able to get my camera and take some photos. Jean left Montreal Canada ten years ago, and during that time has walked 67,000 klm in sixty two countries wearing out forty seven pairs of shoes. He was staying in Barraga Bay, having walked from south of Narooma on the day I saw him. As he travels, people he meets contact their friends enroute who invariably offer him a bed for the night. To read more about Jean's adventures, and see the huge spread of photos from his journey around the globe visit www.wwwalk.org Jean's walk is to raise awareness and funds for a culture of peace and non-violence. Offering young people and future generations the values that can inspire them to shape a world based on justice, solidarity, liberty, dignity, harmony and prosperity. The culture of peace can underpin sustainable development, environmental protection and the well-being of each person. The hosts of the Triangle have assisted Jean realise his dream.

Last weekend saw the Marine Rescue (formerly Coastal Patrol) launches from the far south coast complete a search and rescue operation complete with Navy helicopter from Albatross at Nowra, and Police vessel "Victor" from Eden. Bob Herbert from Wandella is the Regional Co-ordinator for the Monaro Region which covers the coastal area from Durras to the Victorian Border, and includes the lakes such as Jindabyne. The Marine Rescue boats from Merimbula, Bermagui and Tuross took part in the search for three bodies ('dummies') and debris that were stranded off the Bermagui Blue Pool. With the help of the Navy 'spotter' and Sgt Tony Hill from Marine Safety Authority in Sydney up on the headland, liaising with Bob Herbert on the two-way radio, and Dane Russell taking the logs, they all had a successful day in brilliant winter sunshine. Bermagui was chosen as the port for the operation because it was not only a central location, but has a safe harbour, particularly important for the night exercise.

Sgt. Tony Hill, Marine Area Commander takes part in Search and Rescue operations off Bermagui

PRE-SCHOOL ART

Bermagui Pre-School's Art Exhibition opening, held on the upstairs deck of the Fisherman's wharf complex in the dedicated Art Space had a fantastic turn out. The crowd was huge, mingling unavoidable, and it was not even standing room only as with champers and an endless supply of nibblies the appreciative supporters helped raise $2000 for the Pre-School. Mick from Bermagui Cellars stepped in at the last minute to call the auction when Stu rang in sick. Dan Scollay's choir topped off the night. The committee who ran the event thank the proprietors of the wharf development complex for their generous support and the community who attended on the night and raised $1200 by participating in the auction. The art space is open Wednesday to Sunday 2pm to 10pm or by appointment.

LOST 'DOGS' AND LOCAL EVENTS

A pair of hand carved timber dogs were found abandoned at the southern end of the Cuttagee Beach car park recently. A lot of time and effort appears to have gone into making these dogs so it is assumed they were cast away in error. If you know anything about them or want to claim ownership please contact the triangle.

As it is my 'local' I want to plug Jade Morrow's bright and helpful assistance at the Bermagui Fresh Fruit shop in the 777 complex opposite the primary school, although that is just the start of well being when you enter. Gluten free cereals, pasta, sauces, organic fruit and veg when available, meat from Benny's butchery in Cobargo, wood fired sour dough bread from Berry, gourmet sausages from Victoria add to the bulk honey and olive oil supplies. Contact Jade at Bermagui Fresh on 64934775 to place an order, or just drop in and check it out yourself.

I hope to see you at Francesca Sidoti's folk/acoustic debut album performance on 5th September at the Horse & Camel Wine Bar and the all day activities at the Spring Fest Bermagui Wharf mid week festivities on the 29th September. The Murrah Hall variety night on Saturday 11th September and Beatle &

Jade displays the fine produce at Bermagui Fresh Fruit and Vegetables

Chris' Open Garden "Meet the Sculptor" at their home in Pine Drive on Sunday 12th September. Beatle's work "Vestige" can be seen on the Co-op back wall.

Bermagui bike track open again

The mini cyclone that raged through the Triangle area over the last weekend of May did some serious damage to the Bermagui bike track. Ten huge spotted gums came down in the storm blocking the track in several places and two monster trees destroyed about half of the timber bridge.

Over the last six weeks committee members of the Bermagui Dirtsurfers Mountain Bike Club (BDS) have cleaned up, cleared the track and repaired the bridge. The Club wishes to thank and acknowledge Neilsons Mitre 10 for donating nails and bolts used to fix the bridge.

The track was opened on Monday 16th August and BDS is pleased with the results of their hard work. The track has changed in some areas as it was necessary to divert it around fallen trees.

It has also been extended by about 300 metres and includes some exciting new fast flowing turns.

B e r m a g u i Dirtsurfers will be holding a couple of day race events before the end of the year and, after the success of the inaugural twilight race in January this year, it is also planned to stage this event again in January 2011. As soon as dates are finalised, details will be announced on the website www.bermagui-dirtsurfers.org

Goodbye and good luck to Narelle. It was a beautiful shop, we wish you all the best.

Goodluck to Trevor Thomas and Julian Grayson, 2 of our Cobargo Public School kids who will be representing the school at the zone athletics carnival in Canberra.

The musical "Lollies" gave Cobargo a stunning performance. Congratulations to all involved at the Cobargo PS, all the volunteers and Annie Downes for a fabulous afternoon and evening.

What a great fundraiser, the Cobargo P&C have come up with an "On the Pallet" idea for a fundraiser. First up was toilet paper, hence the "Great Cobargo Dunny Roll Drive". Kimberley Clark donated 108 packs of 16 rolls of toilet paper which was sold within a week and raised for the school $540. If you can think of any other item you'd like to see

'On the Pallet', there's a suggestion box at the school.

Down the Wandella and Yowrie Valleys we have been very lucky at keeping the dreaded fireweed under control. So it has been a bit disturbing to find clumps of it growing along the roadside. Diligence is necessary to keep this weed out of our valleys.

Great to see The Train back up and operating, well done Angie and her cheerful staff and also there is a rumour going round the town that a 2nd hand book shop "Well Thumbed" will be opening shortly in the old bakery. It's all good to see our empty shops being brought alive again.

Fire Fighters Dance at Brogo Hall

The Brogo Rural Fire Brigade is holding a Fire Fighters Dance at the Brogo Hall, Princes Highway, Brogo, on Saturday 11 September 2010. The Brogo RFB has obtained a liquor licence for the evening and alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks will be available, as well as a sausage sizzle, for purchase throughout the night. Please be aware that no food or drinks will otherwise be permitted.

A raffle will be run throughout the evening and drawn at about 11.00 pm with a host of exciting prizes to be won.

Although parking will be available at Brogo Hall, it is strongly advised that as many people as possible 'car pool' as parking will be limited. A 17-seater bus will be available to pick up people at:

7.00 pm: Cnr Princes Highway and Baldwins Road
7.15 pm Cnr Bridge House Nursery, Blanchards Road
7.45 pm Brogo fire shed, Warrigal Range Road
8.00 pm Upper Cobargo Road, south of Alsops Bridge

Come support our local Rural Fire Service and the wonderful work they do shown here mopping up in the Brogo Wilderness area within the Wadbilliga National Park

The dance is being held to enable extensions to go ahead on the Brogo fire shed, to accommodate new, larger fire trucks, a secure office, storage area, training room and the upgrade of fire fighting equipment. Plans, which were drawn up free of charge by local engineer Geoff Metzler of Metzler Engineering, are now complete and are currently with council for DA Approval.

The theme for the night will be BLACK, YELLOW, RED and of course prizes will be awarded to the best dressed, the daggiest, the best dancer, etc etc.

The night promises to be bigger and better than the Brogo RFB dance held last year at the Bega RSL, with the exception that all monies raised on the evening will go direct to the extensions to the Brogo fire shed.

We look forward to a big turn out by local residents.

It's the quiet time of the year, tourist wise, and a good time to carry out renovations, refurbishments and the like. The Shire Council is currently upgrading the play equipment and dunnies in the Central Tilba Reserve and replacing some wooden decking in Bate St, with most of the funding coming from the federal government's Regional and Local Community Infrastructure Program. Well done those people who surmounted the funding application process.

On the community front, the next project by the Tilba Halls Committee will be the upgrading of the rear of the little hall. To this end, a fundraiser will be held in the main hall on Saturday 18 September in the form of a trivia night commencing at 7 pm. Please consult 'For the Fridge Door' for details. Previous trivia nights have been great fun for all. It's also worth noting that the Central Tilba Food Cooperative, a group that distributes bulk purchase orders three times a year, has now been extant for a quarter of a century. No small feat in these days of increasingly monopolised food retailers and mass marketing. On a more sombre note, the local dairy industry is in further decline as rising costs and comparatively poor milk prices have prompted Nic and Erica Dibden to sell their cows. Locals wish them well with their cheese factory venture.

The appearance of a sizeable wind generator on a Tilba Tilba property has generated some debate by locals concerned about such modern structures appearing in the Tilba Conservation Area. Whereas said generator does stand out from the landscape like proverbial canine testicles, one has to move with the times. Any move to clean energy should be applauded. One tends to forget that many houses in Central Tilba are of comparatively recent origin, albeit constructed according to heritage specifications. If one wishes to preserve the 'olde worlde' character of the village and surrounds, a push towards underground power and the removal of the increasing tangle of overhead power/communication cables would do much to achieve this aim. I didn't see anyone complaining when Country Energy were recently festooning the village.

Publican Wazza has returned from a well earned holiday in Fiji and is plotting to bring his recently purchased motor cruiser down from the Central Coast to Narooma. In his absence the indefatigable Wendy Woo ruled the Drom and gentlemen were somewhat taken aback by the appearance of floral embellishments in their dunny. Indeed, the pub took on a hallowed air following revelations that Madame Woo had miraculously brought a dead goldfish back to life with one touch of her finger. A well paid consultancy with the Marine Park Authority is anticipated. Chef Helen ('Cookie') enjoyed another birthday. When asked what present she wanted, she replied "A widow's pension". Husband John ('Lynchee') maintained his decorum and quietly slid out of the bar.

On the sporting front, congratulations to the Tilba baseball team who once again took out the South Coast Baseball premiership with a hard fought win over Ulladulla.

At the time of writing, the federal election results indicate a hung parliament. What a load of bulldust from all sides! I can only pray that the mad monk does not end up in charge as he's had more opportunistic changes of direction than a dervish with diarrhoea. On a brighter note, I finally managed to interview Tilba Chook. She was extremely reluctant about being photographed and, I regret to say, decorated the trusty photographic assistant who anchored her to the back of the ute. The photographer Jock was heard to mutter "Watch the turdie".

“Upfront” With Tilba Chook

Recent setbacks have led to this notorious chook becoming somewhat reclusive, so readers should note that I had to pose as a Sydney Morning Herald journalist to gain access to her inner thoughts. Hence, the questions loosely follow the Good Weekend’s ‘upfront’ format.

My earliest memory is.... That’s a bit of a chicken and the egg question! I do remember being bloody cold when I hopped out of the incubator.

My first relationship was... very confronting, to say the least. The only rooster in the yard was a chauvinist bastard.

I don’t like talking about... the recent death of my one true love, Rocky. He was a sensitive new-age rooster and I curse the hawk that took him.

My most treasured possession is.... the few hackles from Rocky that line our love nest.

In the movie of my life I’d be played by.... Gregory Peck in drag.

I wish I had... discovered the joys of travel at an earlier age.

I wish I hadn’t.... laid an egg in the ute in Tilba so that those two clowns Mardy and Jeff recognised and recaptured me.

My most humiliating moment was.... being captured in the Drom. Can you imagine being imprisoned in a beer carton! Pluck me, I don’t even drink!

I am happiest when.... I can sneak though the kitchen window and steal those two clowns’ breakfasts. It’s easy after they’ve had a big night at the Drom.

I’m very bad at.... hiding from pursuers, although I normally do a good job with the eggs.

If I could change one moment of my life, it would be.... to warn Rocky about the hawk (sob!) but, hey, there’s a couple of new roosters in the coop (wink!).

The book that changed my life is.... two actually, The Great Escape and The Pursuit of Eggcellence.

It’s not fashionable, but I love... listening to 50’s rock and roll. I particularly like Cluck Berry.

My greatest fear is.... seeing those two clowns with a chook recipe book.

If only I could.... fly, drive or swim. There’s got to be a way out of here!

The hardest thing I’ve ever done was.... to stay quiet when hiding behind the ute seat en route to Tilba. You’ve no idea of the problem those two clowns have with flatulence!

I’m always being asked.... What’s Central Tilba really like? - By my fellow inmates.

Who are you voting for?... I’m not sure. Julia’s got the best beak but Tony’s ears remind me of wings.

'Scratching The Surface'

A solo exhibition of porcelain by JANET DEBOOS

'Scratching the surface' refers to the fact that although we feel we are inventing things that are new in ceramics, as soon as we start 'scratching the surface' we find the histories of all ceramics underneath. Janet DeBoos is specifically looking at the 'oddness' of Australian flora and juxtaposing it with Chinese floral patterning and imagery to talk about those borrowed histories. She is using the universally common technique of sgraffito- which means 'to scratch the surface'. On a fine porcelain body, sometimes the 'scratching' is into terra sigillata otherwise into black underglaze. Other techniques used are china painting graphics and decals over unglazed or clear glazed forms. Complex techniques with stunning results.

Janet DeBoos is one of Australia's best loved and respected ceramists. For over a decade she has been Head of Ceramics at the Australian National University Art School.

Her work has been exhibited in numerous national and international solo and group exhibitions and in 2006 Janet DeBoos received the Canberra 'Critics Circle' Award for her last solo exhibition at Narek Galleries in Tanja, titled 'Sublime'.

Some of the permanent Collections that hold work by Janet DeBoos are the National Gallery of Australia, Canberra; the National Museum of China, Beijing; the Musee de Mariemont, Belgium and the Zibo Ceramic Museum, Zibo, China.

OPEN GARDEN "MEET THE SCULPTOR" BENEFIT

To assist funding Bermagui sculptor Peter 'Beatle' Collins truck his artworks to Sydney exhibitions at Bondi and McMahon's Point, Chris McKay and Beatle will open their garden on the 12th September from 9-30am till 4-30pm. On show will be Beatle's latest sculpture 'Wave out of Water' and 'Bermagui Bombora' in their tranquil garden setting before they are destined to Sydney.

'Sculpture by the Sea, Bondi' is one of the world's biggest sculpture exhibitions. Last year over 500,000 people attended and it was exploited on the internet and in many international publications. It is enormous exposure for one of our artists to promote this serene coastal region as an inspirational destination to discover unearthed talent. This rare opportunity in the world arena epitomizes the expressive aspirations that our natural environment evokes and provides another certified reason to be proud of where we live.

The garden comprises areas of Mediterranean, formal, arid, parterre vegetable and herb garden and woodland. These gardens validate Chris' love for designing spaces that offer individual sensitivities. She says her imagined designs far exceed her financial capabilities so an ambience is achieved inexpensively by the placement of interesting recycled finds and by propagating plants. After drought, flood, cyclonic wind and personal injury, reassessment has resulted in earthworks before the establishment of more tolerant species.

Suggested entry $10 includes tea/coffee and cake (concession offered) Your support will be greatly appreciated. Their home is 3km south of Bermagui at 20 Pine Drive. Access is through the industrial estate to the end of Pine Drive. Enquires 64934643.

ARTS MEETING SUCCESS

There was an enthusiastic gathering of approximately 20 people concerned with all aspects of the Arts held in the Bermagui Community Hall Meeting Room for lunch on 17th August. The meeting was brilliantly organized by that duo of Anne Marshall and Gordon Beattie and was well attended by representatives of the ever widening cultural spectrum. ie music, performing arts, theatre, art & food. The main presenters were Gordon Beattie, Andrew Grey, and Poppy Benton from Living Artists and the new General Manager of Four Winds, Natalia Tacheci.

The main aim of the group is to expand Arts awareness in our area encouraging and encouraged by Tourism and to ensure that publicity for events is spread from the border along the Coast. The next meeting will be held in November.

CTC now has the senior's kiosk up and running this is a project funded by the federal government. Broadband for seniors is to provide support by offering free computer access, free broadband internet access and free computer training. This is aimed at seniors who have never had the opportunity to learn how to operate a computer or explore the internet and feel threatened by this technology or believe it is too late to learn.

Seniors can come in and feel there way around the computer at there own pace, there is an online tutorial which starts at how to turn on the computer this also comes with a hardcopy booklet. Seniors who would like to take advantage of having a volunteer tutor will need to book in one of CTCs volunteer trainers who will be on hand Monday to Friday 10am till 2pm appointments are essential. Joan Smith of Cobargo was the first to take advantage of the online and volunteer training that is available. Even though Joan has her own laptop she went through some of the online course to gain confidence and learn a few short cuts, Joan has now been 3 times and is completing her online course at her own pace, and she must be enjoying it as she has re-booked.

CTC for a number of years has been trying to gain a Centrelink agency at present we have an access point which allows participants to have original documents sighted, fax their fortnightly form and use the phone to contact Centrelink. Dr Mike Kelly MP presented our case to Parliament and it was handed over to the minister for Human Services Hon Chris Bowen.

On investigating the need, its findings and I QUOTE "Bermagui is located close to existing Centrelink services, including customer service centre at Narooma (32km) and Bega (49km). While there is no public transport available within Bermagui, there is a daily coach service to Narooma." (End quote).

If you live within the Bermagui area and have difficulty getting into Narooma, Bega or Wallaga Lake and need to contact or fax your statement to Centrelink please call into CTC access point and use the facilities. CTC would be interested to hear others views on a need for a Centrelink agency in Bermagui.

I invited Dr Mike Kelly MP to visit The CTC office to see first hand what Bermagui will be loosing should our doors have to close because we have been unsuccessful at getting funding. Dr Kelly called into CTC on Tuesday the 17th he couldn't make any promises but he is at least aware of our center, what we do and the real need to stay open.

We are though still open so please call in and support CTC see what we have to offer you all our current services including, faxing, photo copying, color printing, Video to DVD, DVD to DVD, CD to CD, Photos and old slides to disc, some secretarial services.

It is shaping up to be the best spring in years, and don't we deserve it! Now is the time to get into the garden and finish weeding (do we ever?), fertilise and get some mulch down. Mulching now while the soil still has good moisture content will help keep it there over summer and stop all those weeds germinating. Feeding the garden coming into spring will help support all the new growth we can expect after years of drought.

Start off your veggie and spring flower seeds now in a warm place for planting out later, and postpone planting corn and bean seeds until the soil temperature has warmed up otherwise you will get poor germination and growth.

Although spring is officially here, it takes a little longer to arrive in some of our colder areas. So if you can't resist the temptation to grab those punnets of tomatoes, and there is a chance you may still get a frost, try potting them up. You can grow them on the verandah in a sunny spot until the soil has warmed up and the frosts are over (or you finally finish digging the veggie garden) and then you can plant out your big tomato plants. Alternately if you never actually get around to doing the veggie garden, you can just pot them up into larger pots with some bamboo canes for support and leave them on the verandah!

Have a great spring in the garden!

Soft Footprint Recipes

Carole Broadhead

Hi everyone,

Dawn is off to Lake Eyre to see the flora and birdlife so I am back to fill in for her, as she has done for me the past twelve months.....the time has wizzed by and we have decided to share the joys of writing recipes for the Triangle month and month about.

This year Bill has grown some good water chestnuts, here is a recipe to share that is Bill's very own. If you would like some information on growing water chestnuts please contact Bill on 6493 3678

Bill's Tofu and Water Chestnut entree (serves 4)

Ingredients:

- 15 water chestnuts peeled and each chopped into 6 pieces
- 8 snow peas sliced julienne/ or 8 green beans thinly sliced and blanched
- 2 large cloves of garlic sliced chunky
- 1 slice of peanut satay tofu cut into cubes
- 4 lettuce cups, or a bed of lettuce on a small plate
- 1 chilli (optional)

Place some olive oil in a pan and gently cook the garlic add the water chestnuts and the chilli if using one, when heated through add the peanut satay tofu. Cook till coloured, add the beans or peas and gently toss till heated through. Place on the lettuce and serve.....so good!

The other vegetable we have in abundance is Jerusalem artichokes. I found this recipe in "A Glut of Citrus Fruit" as lemons are plentiful it is a good salad for this time of year.

Lemon and Artichoke Salad

- 750grams of artichokes
- Juice of 2 lemons plus 2 tablespoons of lemon juice
- Grated peel of one lemon
- 3 spring onions, green and white parts chopped
- 60ml of olive oil
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
- 185ml of single cream
- 2 tablespoons of fresh parsley

Scrub artichokes well and take of any little knobs and blemishes, boil in salted water to which you have added two tablespoons of lemon juice. Cook for 10 to 20minutes depending on the size. They should be firm and whole not mushy when cooked.

Drain and leave to cool.

While still warm slice, cube or quarter; place in a serving dish, add remaining lemon juice, peel, spring onions and olive oil toss very gently being careful not to break the artichokes and leave marinate for 1-2 hours.

Just before serving grind over some black pepper, pour over cream, toss again and sprinkle with parsley.

Jerusalem Artichokes

30 Years Experience

A Whale of a Season

The NSW National Parks and wildlife service (NPWS) says that the peak of the whale watching season on the Far South Coast has begun with the first whales being spotted already on their southerly migration as they start the return journey to Antarctic waters.

From early September to late November, thousands of whales will be seen travelling through the waters of the Far South Coast as they make their way from their winter breeding grounds in tropical waters to the north to return to their summer feeding grounds in Antarctica.

Humpback whales will be escorting new calves and the migration will include juveniles seeking to explore bays and headlands and sometimes boats.

Geoff Ross, wildlife management officer and coordinator, marine fauna programs for NSW National Parks encourages people visiting or living along the Far South Coast of NSW to take the opportunity to observe these marine giants as they head south.

'Over the last three weeks there have been a number of sightings of Southern Right Whales at Merimbula, North Tura, Tathra and Eden. Amazingly 14 Southern Right Whales were observed during an aerial survey between Moruya and Narooma this week.

"These whales are slowly heading south and are often the first whales seen because they come in close to shore. The Humpbacks travel as far north as southern Queensland and start appearing on the far South Coast in late August and early September.

"I strongly urge people to make some time to go and have a look seaward during this time to witness first hand this amazing spectacle," he said.

Bermagui Historical Society

2001 Calendar

The Bermagui Historical Society is proud to present the 2011 Calendar, which will be available during first week of September. The calendar will be an ideal souvenir or gift for friends and visitors, as well as a wonderful keepsake for local residents, and has a full A4 print for each month.

The calendars can be purchased from the 777 store or from the Museum for $10.00 each. All profits will go to help keep the society running and help keep the Museum open.

Over the winter period, our hard working volunteers have been re-arranging and refurbishing all the display cabinets to enable visitors a fresh new viewing experience. It is hoped that the Museum will be re-opened by the long weekend in October. A photo research data base has now been established with over 5000 images and all our photographs have been securely digitised, as well as document scanning currently underway to preserve these precious memories. The use of digital data now makes searching for information so much faster for researchers and interested parties.

The first run of the "Heritage walk around Bermagui South" booklet has sold out and a reprint is underway for the tourist season. As well, the "Heritage drive from Wallaga Lake to Bermagui" is also being reprinted. The Bermagui Visitor Information Centre still has some copies left though.

The Bermagui Historical Society is always looking for more members to volunteer. Membership is just $10.00 per year. So if you are interested, please ring Dave on 6493 3800 for further information

We thank all those involved for their continued support, and look forward to welcoming new members.

AWL Pet of the Month

Buzz, the tan six months old Chihuahua x, (pictured) Dino, the seven year old male brindle & white Boxer X cattle dog, Bear, the four and a half year old Staffy x, Penny the six year old female JR x, Scruffy, the female seven months old white and brown Maltese x Jack Russell, Mitzi, the fifteen months old female mini Jack Russell x, Lily, the fourteen months old black Lab/Kelpie, Muffin, the four year old female Torti, Pip the male B& W eighteen months old cat, Jess, the female Black and white cat and Boots, the male Black and White nine wks old kitten are hoping they are rehomed this month.

Please call the adoption line on 0400 372 609 if you would like to enquire about adopting one of these companion animals or if you would like to be put on the waiting list for a particular type of animal. Some of the animals available can be viewed on the AWL website @ animalwelfareleague.com.au.

Potential dog owners will need to have secure "dog proof" fencing. The AWL adoption fee of $300 for puppies and dogs ($295 + refundable deposit of $5 on I.D tag), $175 for kittens and $120 for cats, includes de-sexing, vaccinations (two x c5 for pups and two for kittens), micro chipping, worming vet check, flea and tick treatment and heartworm testing for dogs. Please bear in mind that it could cost over $460.00 plus the cost of the pet if adopting privately! If you have lost or found a companion animal please call BVSC Companion Animal Facility on 64 99 2222. For wildlife enquiries contact WIRES 64 95 4150 or NANA 64 93 0357.

Have your dog or cat de-sexed for only $50. AWL Far South Coast branch members are hoping to help as many dog and cat owners have their pets de-sexed before the Spring breeding season as they can. If you are unable to have your animal de-sexed due to financial difficulty you can collect a subsidy application form from all Bega Valley Shire Vets. Please note that Far South Coast Branch Animal Welfare League NSW volunteers raise the funds to support this de-sexing subsidy and do not receive any Government funding so please, if you can afford to de-sex your pet without using AWL funds it would be appreciated.

Ask your local vet for details & a voucher or phone 0448 014 046.

"I wont take up much room" said Buzz, hoping for a new home
